MASTER OF ARTS IN SOCIAL STUDIES EDUCATION

The revised program aims to develop practitioners and leaders who will strengthen Social Studies education. The program is laddered on to the Diploma program.

Program Goals

The program aims to develop social studies education practitioners who can:

- Demonstrate a deep understanding of the theoretical and disciplinary foundations of social studies education;
- Design and develop theoretically grounded and research-based curricula and instructional materials for social studies programs;
- Organize and implement relevant, interdisciplinary, and coherent social studies programs; and
- Assess and evaluate processes and outcomes of social studies education using a variety of tools and approaches.
- Participate in broader policy, regulatory, and social discourses related to social studies education;
- Contribute to the body of research in social studies education; and
- Demonstrate and facilitate professional learning and leadership in social studies education.

Mode of Instruction

All courses are taught online following the principles of guided independent study and collaborative inquiry.
